

FAQs: Date Coaching and High End Matchmaking Services by SuccessMatch

Q What is SuccessMatch?

A SuccessMatch is the leading provider of date coaching and elite matchmaking services for successful singles. Based in Switzerland, we help our local and international single clientele find love. Trea Tijmens, the CEO of SuccessMatch, founded SuccessMatch in 2005. In these many years of working as an elite matchmaker and science-based dating coach, she has touched the lives of over 8000 singles.

Q Who does SuccessMatch help?

I would love to help you find love if you are a Swiss or international highly successful professional or business owner. You have a strong academic background, live a healthy lifestyle, and enjoy an excellent quality of life. In fact, you seem to have everything in life except a nice partner to share that life with!

Are you ready to find that great partner? Then I look forward to talking to you. I work in a professional, confidential, personalized, and caring way. Single, divorced, widowed – your relationship background does not matter. Together we'll find the best way for you to find your partner. That's for sure!

My male clients range in age from early thirties to early seventies. Female clients from mid-twenties to early sixties

Q What is the success rate of SuccessMatch?

A For our private coaching, group coaching and mentoring, as well as our elite matchmaking services, 100% of our clients date and over 85% of our clients are in a happy relationship before the end of their membership term!

It is safe to say that, with my help, you too can find the love of your life.

Q Does SuccessMatch work with both male and female clients?

A Yes, both men and women are welcome to join my matchmaking and date coaching services!

Q Do you accept anyone as clients?

A No, I only work with clients who are a good fit with me and my approach. People who I personally like and respect, who are positive, hopeful, and serious about wanting to find the right partner. You should be committed to do the work necessary to get the result that you want. You should, like me, be fully invested in creating a successful outcome and be as enthusiastic as I am about working together!

Q What can I expect from a 15 min complimentary consultation?

A Due to high demand for our services, SuccessMatch conducts all consultations via Zoom with camera. The 15-minute complimentary consultation gives us a first impression of whether there could be a fit between us. As you will have already read these Frequently Asked Questions before we meet, we can focus on you and your needs and whether there could be a fit. If there is further interest, you may then book a 50-minute paid clarity consultation with Trea Tijmens, CEO of SuccessMatch and award-winning dating expert.

Q What can I expect from the 50-minute paid clarity consultation?

A During the 50-minute clarity consultation via Zoom we'll talk about your goals, needs, and expectations as well as my approach in helping singles transition from where they are at to where they want to be; (in a happy, lasting relationship with the right partner).

When there is a fit between you and my services, I will tell you right away about the offer and how it works etc. At the end of the consult, we'll know whether we are enthusiastic and ready to commit and start working together.

The consultation is charged at 250 CHF and when we decide to work together, the 250 CHF that was paid for this will be deducted from your fees.

Q May I meet Trea, the CEO of SuccessMatch face-to-face?
